NATIONAL ENGLISH
HONOR SOCIETY
for High Schools

Convention Presentation Award

NEHS is proud to offer an exceptional, fully-funded, opportunity for student members (accompanied by a fully-funded Chapter Advisor) to present at the 2027 English Honor Societies Convention in Milwaukee, WI, this March.

English Honor Societies
2027 Convention
March 10–13, 2027 | Milwaukee, WI

- Students must work in pairs, and a Chapter Advisor must submit work on behalf of the pair of students. Chapter Advisors can only submit work for 1 pair of students from their school.
- The pair must submit two unique, innovative, insightful, and thought-provoking presentation abstracts (300-350 words) that outline a presentation that will analyze the context, setting, characters, plot, literary devices, and/or themes within the following texts that will be evident in the final presentation.
- One abstract must examine Angie Cruz's Dominicana while the other must analyze Jane Austen's Mansfield Park.
