Graphic Short Story Award

We invite student members to create an original piece of work that demonstrates the unique power of graphic storytelling to bridge cultures, foster empathy, and reveal our shared humanity.

- Students should create a single piece of sequential art, narrative in nature, which demonstrates the unique power of graphic storytelling to bridge cultures, foster empathy, and reveal our shared humanity.
- The piece can be hand-drawn on letter size paper or created digitally in the same proportions.
- All submissions must be a high resolution PDF.
- All artwork included must be created by the student(s); applicants cannot use existing artwork/graphics or AI to create their design.
