Smithsonian Scholarships

NEHS collaborates with the Smithsonian American Art Museum (SAAM) to offer Chapter Advisors an enriching professional development opportunity through the SAAM Summer Institutes.

NEHS will provide one scholarship of up to $1,500 and the Smithsonian Institute will provide one scholarship of up to $1,500 to the two best NEHS Chapter Advisor applications received. The course registration fees will be waived for scholarship winners.

Applicants must submit a competitive application directly to the Smithsonian American Art Museum's Summer Institute: Teaching the Humanities through Art. Please indicate in the drop-down box in the application that the applicant is an NEHS Chapter Advisor.
