NEHS Triangle Journal

The NEHS Triangle is a journal specializing in student members' creative and critical writing. Each edition has a different focus, which submissions should reflect.

- Critical submissions must be between 1,000 and 2,000 words, excluding notes and works cited.
- Essays can be on any literary topic and should have been created as part of a class.
- Essays are expected to adhere to the Modern Language Association style guidelines outlined in the latest edition of the MLA Handbook for Writers of Research Papers.
